

Thursday, 10 December 2015

Catapult Sports Signs Agreement To Be Provider
Of GPS Athlete Tracking For AFL From 2016

On behalf of everyone at Aura Group, we would like to congratulate Catapult Sports (ASX: CAT) on reaching an agreement with the AFL to become the provider of GPS-based athlete tracking services. The agreement extends across all 18 AFL teams and the AFL talent pathways program for a five year term commencing from the 2016 season (full announcement - here).

In what has been a monumental year for Catapult, the partnership with the AFL follows the recently signed league-wide agreement with the Australian Rugby Union in November 2015.

Catapult now services over 700 teams globally, including:

- 18/32 NFL teams;
- 17/30 NBA teams;
- 9/18 Turkey's Super Lig teams signed;
- All 16 NRL teams;
- 6 MLS teams;
- 50 NCAA US College teams; and
- 30 English football teams across the English Premier League, Championship and League One.

As at 10th December 2015, Catapult's share price has risen 220% since listing on the ASX in December 2014.

ENDS

For further information please contact:

Chrystan Paul

Aura Group

E: cpaul@auracapital.com.au

M: +61 (0) 404 112 391

About Aura Group

Aura Group is a global financial services business specialising in corporate advisory, funds management and principal investments with offices in Sydney, Melbourne and Singapore.

Aura Group is led by a team of professionals possessing a wealth of experience across investment banking, funds management, equities research, law, accounting, taxation and business advisory.

The group's activities are organized into three operating divisions: corporate advisory, wealth management, principal investments. Its suite of invested portfolio companies are predominantly within the financial services, technology and professional services sectors.